

§2300 POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND VOTER EDUCATION

The Catholic Church, its parishes and Church organizations are prohibited by federal law from participating in partisan political activities. This prohibition is absolute. The tax-exempt status of a parish or Church organization may be revoked if there is a violation of the law, and other penalties and taxes may also be imposed on any funds spent on prohibited political activities.

However, the Church does have a role in politics and public policy formation through activities such as:

- Educating Catholics and others on the teachings of the Church as they relate to social policies.
- Analyzing and measuring policies against the values of the Gospel.
- Speaking out on issues, such as those involving the life and dignity of the human person, social justice, the promotion of the common good, and the life of the Church in society.
- Encouraging voters to participate fully in the political process.

The following policies and procedures are adapted from the “Guidelines on Political Activities for Parishes and Catholic Church Organizations,” published by the Catholic Conference of Illinois and available online at: www.ilcatholic.org/wp-content/uploads/Political_Guidelines_Brochure_ENGLISH_FINAL_2016.pdf
