

Marriage on Tap STL

Invites you to enjoy an evening of marriage enrichment:

Speaking the Language of Faith in Ordinary Family Life

Featuring Father Charlie Archer

Father Charlie Archer was born and raised in St. Louis, the second of four kids, attending St. Margaret Mary Alacoque grade school, then St. Louis University High School, and the University of Dallas. In his junior year of college, he felt a clear invitation to discern the priesthood. After graduating he entered Kenrick-Glennon Seminary until his ordination on May 20, 2021 at the Cathedral Basilica. He now serves as the Parochial Vicar at the New Cathedral and runs Salt+Light, the young adult ministry of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.
